Pa. tries to resolve graduated tax levy

HARRISBURG (UPI)—Pennsylvania will move one step closer to having a graduated state income tax this week.

The Senate plans to send a bill which would amend the state Constitution to permit graduated taxes into a House-Senate conference committee where final wording can be worked out.

The two chambers currently are at odds over whether the constitutional change should apply only to the state levy or to local taxes also.

The House limited it to the state, but the Senate changed it to say any tax on income, no matter what its origin, could be graduated — imposed at different rates according to income.

Gov. Milton J. Shapp met with leaders from both houses last week. It was decided then that the conference committee would be the best vehicle for working out a compromise.

Shapp is particularly anxious to see the bill approved before the end of this year's legislative session.

Since constitutional amendments require passage by two elected legislatures before going to the voters, the first vote must come before January. If the second one is early in 1973, it could be on the 1973 primary ballot.

According to that timetable, the current 2.3 per cent flat income tax could be repealed and a graduated one put in its place by the start of fiscal 1973-74.

It also would give Shapp strong ammunition for a reelection effort in 1974.

The Senate vote which will start the whole process will be a technical vote to insist on this version of the tax. That automatically will throw the bill into a conference committee.

House leaders said they would try for the second week in a row to call up a bill which would grant income tax exemptions to poor families.

The House bill is not related to the constitutional amendment.

It would exempt from the present tax a single person's earning up to $2,000, and married couple earning up to $3,500. In addition, exemptions of $750 each would be provided for each child, up to a total of eight.

The bill was slated for a final vote last week, but the chambers held only a two day session and the vote was delayed.

$10 million in forged bills seized

COLOGNE, Germany (UPI)—Police seized $10 million worth of counterfeit U.S. $50 dollar bills, police said Sunday, and arrested six Germans in connection with the case.

Werner Hamacher, chief of Cologne's detective division, said police seized most of the bills in a raid on an apartment in Lindlar, a small town east of Cologne.

Police said the haul of forged bills was the largest ever in West Germany.

Hamacher said the forgeries came to the attention of the police when an informer passed some of the bills to detectives in Hanover.

He said federal agents and detectives followed the suspects for 10 days.

When police raided the Lindlar apartment, they found the press used to print the notes and millions of dollars worth of counterfeit bills packed neatly in bundles, apparently ready for distribution.

Soldiers searching for hijacker

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (UPI)—Honduran soldiers spread out through the thick, rain-soaked jungles south of the Gulf of Honduras Sunday, searching for a man who hijacked an Eastern Airlines plane between Allentown, Pa., and Washington and parachuted with $303,000 into this Central American nation.

The man, described by the pilot of the hijacked 727 jetliner as "completely ruthless," told the pilot he wanted to give the money to a South American political group. He did not identify the group.

He hijacked the Miami-bound plane soon after it took off from Allentown Friday and parachuted into the jungle on Saturday after an all-night flight and three stops.

The area where he jumped is extremely rugged and isolated.

Foreigners are rarely seen there and police said the man might be able to hide for a while but it would be virtually impossible for him to travel without attracting attention.

The man, believed to be a former Vietnam war pilot, flashed a .38 caliber pistol soon after the plane took off from Allentown and ordered it to land at Washington where he picked up the ransom money.

From Washington, he ordered the pilot to New Orleans for refueling. In the meantime, ground crews discovered a malfunctioning hydraulic system so he commandeered another 727.

He then flew south to Merida, Mexico and on to Honduras.

The area in which he jumped is about 1,000 miles south of New Orleans and 50 miles south of the Gulf of Honduras. The nearest town is Tegucigalpa but the search centered in the area around a village of 1,500 named Yoro, 80 miles away.

Communications are extremely bad out of the area and the Honduran army ordered a news blackout.

The rainy season has set in and an air search is almost useless because of the low, heavy clouds.

Soldiers, however, moved through the jungles on the hills overlooking the banana plantations on the nearby plains. Bananas are Honduras' main export and the trees stretch for miles through the area.

Police speculated the hijacker may be able to use some of the money to buy a hiding place but he would not be able to travel through the area or leave the country without being spotted.

The only foreigners who travel through the area are agronomists from the banana companies, and they are becoming more rare since firms started hiring native technicians.

Five area residents on hijacked plane

STROUDSBURG — Four Monroe County residents and a Pen Argyl woman were among the 48 passengers on the hijacked Eastern Airlines jet.

They are: Jill Dorheady 18, of Stroudsburg R.D. ; Brenda Hoffman, 19, of Stroud Township; Mr. and Mrs. Chris Colovos of Henryville R.D. 1 and Mrs. Albert Bray of Pen Argyl.

Neither of the area residents were harmed and were among the passengers allowed to leave the hijacked plane at Dulles International Airport.

The hijacker was seated directly behind Miss Dorheady and Miss Hoffman.

"I cried," Miss Hoffman said.

Colovos said the hijacker had "set up shop" in the plane's lavatory and at one point Colovos was waved away by the hijacker. Colovos said from conversations he has had with FBI officials, he feels the FBI has identified the hijacker but have not released the name.

Nixon recalls Rogers for urgent Asia talks

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State William P. Rogers broke off his nine-day West European mission Sunday and flew to Washington for urgent talks with President Nixon on the Southeast Asian crisis.

The secretary's Air Force jet landed at nearby Andrews Air Force Base, Md., shortly before 4 p.m. EDT. He avoided newsmen and was whisked away by limousine.

Rogers is to meet at the White House today with the President and the National Security Council. Neither the State Department nor the White House would give firm details on the secretary's sudden switch in plans, although it almost certainly was prompted primarily by the continuing North Vietnamese drive into South Vietnam.

The White House announced that Rogers also will meet with the National Security Council during today's meeting. Deputy press secretary Gerald Warren said Rogers had been called back for this and "other consultations," but that "I can't give any details on the meeting or what they will be discussing."

The secretary was accompanied by his wife and Robert J. McCloskey, his top press aide, but left other members of his party in Bonn—an apparent indication he plans to resume the European trip later. The decision to return to the capital left Rogers no time to confer with West German officials Sunday as scheduled, and at least postponed his plans to visit Paris today, Rome Tuesday and Madrid Wednesday.

Before leaving Bonn, McCloskey said only that Rogers' discussions with the President "will include the situation in Southeast Asia." Rogers himself refused to go beyond that except to caution against over-dramatization.

But his return comes at a time when the "burgeoning North Vietnamese offensive in South Vietnam poses an increasingly agonizing problem for the administration."

The President and his chief spokesmen have made it clear they will take what they call "all necessary measures"—short of using nuclear weapons or reintroducing U. S. ground combat troops—to ensure South Vietnam's survival.

North Vietnam's continuing advances appeared to face Nixon with the necessity of taking some tough new action in the war—but action which would not prejudice Nixon's trip to Moscow scheduled to begin May 22.

There has been speculation in Washington that the President might seek to organize an incursion into North Vietnam using South Vietnamese troops with American air support to relieve the pressure on South Vietnam.

Meantime, there were these other related developments:

—It was reported from Tokyo that Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, the President's national security affairs adviser, had postponed for the second time his planned visit to Japan—most recently scheduled in mid-May. The White House had no immediate comment.

—Senate end-the-war forces appeared likely to put aside temporarily their attempt to legislate a halt to U. S. involvement in view of possible repercussions at the height of the Communist offensive.

—Investigators for the Senate Foreign Relations Committee reported that Laos and Cambodia were both on the verge of falling to the Communists until North Vietnam diverted the bulk of its forces to the South Vietnamese drive.

What's news

(Dow Jones-Ottaway News Service)

Permanent siege faces S. Vietnam

WASHINGTON — A state of permanent siege faces South Vietnam, two Senate Foreign Relations Committee investigators said. In a heavily censored report, they said Laos and Cambodia were on the verge of toppling before Hanoi concentrated its troops for the current offensive in South Vietnam. The situation in both countries was much more critical than the administration had acknowledged, they said.

Explosion injures 46

SAN DIEGO — A tank cart drawing off fuel exploded alongside the Apollo 16 space capsule in a hangar at the North Island Naval Air Station Sunday, sending 46 persons to the hospital, most suffering from inhalation of toxic fumes. The capsule itself suffered only minor damage according to North American Rockwell Corp., its builder, although chunks of metal and debris were sent hurtling through the large building and blew a hole in the roof 200 above. The most seriously injured was a Rockwell technician who suffered a fractured kneecap when the cart overturned on him.

Rescue work continues

KELOOG — Rescue work continued at the Sunshine Silver Mine near Kellogg, Idaho. Mechanics made final repairs on a hoist that could lower rescuers to 47 miners trapped for five days a mile below the surface. The men were trapped by a fire, believed caused by spontaneous combustion, that broke out at midday Tuesday. Thirty-five men are known to have died in the fire. (Details on page 2)

Scott, Mansfield return

WASHINGTON — Senate Democratic and Republican Leaders Mike Mansfield and Hugh Scott returned Sunday from what they described as an "encouraging" 16-day visit to mainland China, and said they would report directly to President Nixon within two days. They declined to comment on any details of their trip, including eight hours of talks with Premier Chou En-lai, during a brief news conference on arrival at Andrews Air Force Base, Md., outside Washington.

Texans rush to reforms

DALLAS — Texans, angered by two years of scandal in state government and 20 years of Democratic empire rule by Lyndon B. Johnson and John B. Connally, voted out their leaders in a rush for reform and sent the South's first black woman to Congress, primary returns showed Sunday. Voters kicked out Gov. Preston Smith, who pocketed $62,500 in a shady stock deal, and L. Gov. Ben Barnes, a 34-year-old peanut farmer who was the heir to the conservative organization of Johnson, the former President, and Connally, the Treasury secretary.

A happy and healthy Sandra LaFontsee, 2, visits with her mother.

Heart works in reverse — but doctors save girl's life

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (UPI)—The blood in 2-year-old Sandra La Fontsee's heart flows backward as the result of one of the rarest heart operations ever performed on a child.

The Grand Rapids girl will leave the University of Michigan's Mott Children's Hospital sometime this week after successfully recovering from a five-hour operation April 21 that corrected a heart birth defect that occurs only once in every one million births.

Before the operation, Sandra's color was blue because of a very rare form of transposition of the two main arteries leading from her heart. Before the surgery, red oxygenated blood was going into her lungs while blue blood was being distributed through her body.

Today, Sharon is encouragingly pink and doctors report she is progressing nicely from the surgery, probably a procedure rarer than a heart transplant. Only five cases of "Taussig-Bing malformation" have been corrected surgically, two of them by the UM surgical team which has performed six heart transplant operations.

According to Dr. Douglas Behrendt, principal surgeon in Sandra's case, infants born with transposed heart arteries have little or no chance of surviving without surgery. Only within the last few years has technology developed to the point permitting such complex surgery on infants, he said.

In Sandra's case, the two sides of the heart were connected in the middle instead of being separate chambers. Surgeons changed the blood flow in two places and thus completed the reversal which nature had attempted.

Sandra was placed on a special infant heart-lung machine so correction could be made on the vessels of her heart. As a result of the surgery, the heart now works efficiently although in reverse of the normal heart as the right side does the left side's work and vice-versa.

Viet troops hold firm on positions

SAIGON (UPI)—North Vietnamese troops attacked South Vietnamese positions on the three major Vietnam war fronts Sunday but failed to score a victory on the 18th anniversary of the fall of Dien Bien Phu, military spokesmen said.

The spokesmen said South Vietnamese soldiers held the lines five miles south of Hue, six miles north of Kontum and at the province capital of An Loc, 60 miles north of Saigon.

U.S. B-52 heavy bombers continued raids behind the Communist front lines late Sunday and early today, but results of 18 raids on the major fronts were unknown, American officers said.

U.S. Navy warplanes shot down three North Vietnamese MIGs in dogfights 80 miles southwest of Hanoi but a Navy attack bomber was knocked down by a Communist anti-aircraft missile the U.S. command said Sunday.

South Vietnamese defenders of Hue, 400 miles north of Saigon, fought an estimated 125 Communist six miles south of the former imperial capital Sunday, the Saigon high command said, and killed 43 just outside Birmingham Base, the southern defense line of the city.

Major fighting erupted around the Central Highlands base camp of Plei Kleng, west of the embattled province capital of Kontum and around the Communist-held village of Tau O on highway 13, about 50 miles north of Saigon, government sources said.

President Nguyen Van Thieu flew to Hue Sunday for conferences with his commanders, including L. Gen. Ngo Quang Truong, who took command of the northern sector last week. It was Thieu's second trip there in four days.

Nixon to seek additional funds for needy children

Dow Jones-Ottaway News
WASHINGTON — President Nixon today will ask Congress for more money to feed needy children and for an incentive-based system for allocating school lunch funds among the states.

The White House over the weekend released a Presidential statement outlining a three-part legislative proposal that is being sent to Capitol Hill today. The legislation asks $44.5 million in additional funds for child nutrition programs, besides reforming the way school lunch money is parceled out to the states.

To expand a program that provides meals to needy children in cities during the summer, Nixon requested an additional $25 million for the fiscal year starting July 1, raising to $50.5 million the amount earmarked for this purpose in the coming fiscal year. The amount budgeted for the current fiscal year is $20.1 million.

The President said the extra money for the summer feeding program would enable the government to support all the applications that meet eligibility criteria.

Extend program
The President also asked for an additional $19.5 million to extend the school breakfast program to another 3,000 schools in the coming fiscal year. That amount would raise proposed fiscal 1973 spending on subsidized breakfasts to $25.5 million, about double the current year's $26.5 million.

To prevent these extra outlays from raising the overall agriculture department budget for the coming year, Nixon directed the department to offset the $44.5 million total by other action. The offset will be achieved by the sale of more loan assets of the Farmers Home Administration than initially budgeted; for federal budget purposes, sales of assets are treated as reductions in outlays rather than as revenues.

The proposed change in the school lunch aid system affects a politically sensitive program in which previous Nixon administration proposals for change have caused controversy. Last year, faced by a balky Congress, the administration abandoned an attempt to change eligibility rules for the program that critics said would have prevented many needy children from participating.

New system
Nixon proposed in his statement that Congress adopt a "performance system" for allocating school lunch money. Such a system, he said, would "establish an incentive for states to insure that all needy children will be fed." Nixon said that "under the performance system, the more pupils served in a state, the more federal assistance it receives."

The new system, which is intended to reflect increases in participation by the states, would replace an allocation formula based on population, poverty and other factors.

The proposed legislation also would set new eligibility standards for both the lunch and breakfast programs. The rules would require free lunches for any child from a family below the official poverty line (currently $4,110 for a family of four) and would permit states to serve free meals for pupils from families with incomes up to 115 per cent of the poverty standard.

In some states, children from poverty-level families currently pay part of the lunch cost, up to 20 cents a meal, rather than receiving the food free.

The proposed legislation also would establish an eligibility standard for reduced-price lunches — those costing the pupil up to 20 cents. Children from families with incomes up to 130 per cent of the official poverty level would be eligible for the reduced-price lunch.

The Nixon proposals on eligibility are less generous than those outlined in bills sponsored by some liberal Democrats, and a Senate Agriculture Committee source said specialists would want to look closely at the potential impact of the complex new formulas in the administration proposals.

Demos battle for votes

By United Press International
Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey and George S. McGovern did battle in Nebraska Sunday for the May 9 presidential primary, while Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace's big North Carolina victory prompted him to consider entering the California primary.

Humphrey made a side trip into West Virginia, which also holds its primary on Tuesday.

In Omaha, McGovern taped television advertisements in an effort to knock down what he termed "last minute scare tactics" concerning his stand on legalization of abortion and marijuana and amnesty for draft evaders.

Anti-McGovern forces in Nebraska have been hitting on these issues since the middle of last week, implying in advertisements and news releases that the South Dakota senator favors all three actions.

McGovern also attended services at a Baptist church Sunday, and had lunch at a suburban cafeteria.

Humphrey met with an ethnic group and five POW wives before flying to West Virginia, where his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1960 spluttered to a stop for lack of funds.

McGovern and Humphrey are regarded as well ahead of any of the other 11 Democrats on the Nebraska ballot, and the only other candidate campaigning there is Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty.

The McGovern-Humphrey race Tuesday is rated very close by supporters and campaign leaders for both men.

In Baltimore, following the Saturday North Carolina primary win that gave him 51 per cent of the vote and 37 national convention delegates, Wallace said: "I feel a little more inclined to run in the California primary."

Then he hedged: "This doesn't mean I'm going to run in California necessarily."

In Montgomery, Wallace press aide Billy Joe Kamp told UPI Audio that a good showing in Michigan and Maryland "would almost insure a California effort."

20,000 protest Brandt pact

BONN (UPI)—An estimated 20,000 demonstrators, many of them who traveled across the country just to attend the rally, yelled their disapproval Sunday of West German Chancellor Willy Brandt's proposed nonaggression treaties with Russia and Poland.

Most of the demonstrators were expelled from Germany's eastern provinces by the Soviets after World War II. They feel ratification of the proposed treaties, which were signed by Brandt in 1970, would be the same as admitting the surrender of their homeland.

The demonstrators on Bonn's Market Square burst into applause when Herbert Czaja, president of the federation representing the group, said: "Parliament must reject the treaties in their present form. Czaja is a member of the Christian Democratic opposition in Parliament."

The demonstrators came to Bonn by bus and train from many parts of the country to protest ratification of the controversial treaties.

POW organization attacks Nixon's Vietnam policies

WASHINGTON (UPI)—In a major break with past policy, the nation's largest organization of POW families formally attacked the administration's Vietnamization policy Sunday for having failed so far to win release of the prisoners.

Angry members of the National League of Families of American Prisoners and Missing in Southeast Asia also voted to seek a face-to-face meeting with President Nixon and question him on what "arrangements he has made or is making for the release of the POW's and an accounting of the MIA's (missing in action)."

Although the league is officially neutral, in the past it has enjoyed a close relationship with the administration as it worked for the "humanitarian" goals of obtaining improved treatment of the POW's. But growing frustration among rank-and-file over the seeming powerlessness of the United States to get the prisoners back has generated new activists who want the league to pressure the administration.

And in still another expression of displeasure with the administration, about 50 league members climbed into a fleet of waiting cabs and drove across the Potomac River to the White House where they left a letter for Nixon signed by 70 relatives demanding such a meeting.

Weary rescuers attempt to reach trapped miners

KELLOGG, Idaho (UPI) — Weary rescue crews worked on three fronts Sunday to reach 47 men trapped since Tuesday deep in the Sunshine Silver Mine.

Workers on the surface readied two 10-foot long capsules developed by the Atomic Energy Commission. After testing, one of the two-man, semicircular cylinders was to be lowered down a ventilation shaft to the 4,800 foot level Sunday night.

A second crew was making final repairs on an elevator hoist that could carry rescuers down the No. 10 shaft from the 3,100 foot level.

A third party was trying to reach the No. 10, the area where the miners were trapped when a fire broke out Tuesday, by a side approach at the 3,700 foot level.

A fire broke out Tuesday in the mine, killing 35 men in the worst disaster in western metal mining history. There has been no word whether the 47 men still below are dead or alive.

If possible, rescuers hoped to use the No. 10 hoist because of its 36-man capacity. It also offered the fastest exit route from the maze of tunnels and shafts within the nation's largest silver mine.

"The hoist is close to being able to be used," said Marvin C. Chase, Sunshine vice president.

The main problem—as it has been for five days—was lingering smoke and lethal gases in the central depths of the mine. Officials said the upper levels and the bottom of the mine—from 4,800 to 5,000 feet—were relatively free of gases.

Elbert Osborn, director of the U.S. Bureau of Mines, said the AEC capsules have an independent oxygen system and can maintain contact with the surface at all times. He said officials planned to make several tests, then lower a man down in one of the capsules Sunday night.

Chase told a news conference that workers at the 3,100 foot level were cleaning off the 36-man hoist and trying to block a drift tunnel that was emitting smoke and gas, hampering the rescue workers.

Chase said the rescuers were positioned directly over the point where the miners were believed trapped.

Students elect ex-con

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (UPI)—The newly elected president of The Pennsylvania State University student government is an ex-convict.

Mark J. Shields, 22, was convicted of aggravated robbery and conspiracy in his hometown of Harrisburg in January, 1969. He served 19 months of a six-year prison sentence and has four more years on parole. He enrolled at Penn State in a special program for convicts.

Shields was elected Penn State student president in a six-man race ending April 28. He ran on a radical program, denouncing alleged surveillance of students by the authorities.

At least half the voters knew his background.

Students said Shields spoke freely of his prison record until he started to run for office. He spoke out for prison reform and participated in public panel discussions on prison problems. He is a third year student in the Newview Program run jointly by the university and the state Department of Corrections.

Furthermore, four of Shields' five opponents, all of whom campaigned actively, pointedly reminded the voters that Shields was an ex-con.

However, Shields, on the advice of his campaign managers, and the student newspaper, the Daily Collegian, never mentioned his record during the campaign.

Shields drew 3,642 votes in the election, 750 more than his nearest opponent. The total vote, among approximately 20,000 eligible undergraduates, was 8,331.

Tax application filing extended

HARRISBURG — Rep. William Foster (R-Wayne-Pike-Monroe) announced today the deadline for applying for Senior Citizens Property Tax Relief has been extended to May 29, 1972. The prior deadline was April 29.

He pointed out that copies of several documents will be accepted as proof when applying for the tax relief. "Any of the following," Foster said, "will meet the requirements of the law:

- A. Birth certificate.
- B. Page from family Bible.
- C. Hospital record of birth.
- D. Medicare card.
- E. School record.
- F. Marriage license.
- G. Military discharge.
- H. Federal census record.
- I. Letter from Social Security indicating you are receiving social security.

Foster pointed out that copies of any of the above documents, not the originals, must be sent with the application for assistance. "The copies," Foster said, "must be attested to by an affidavit indicating that the information came from a true copy."

Rep. Foster explained senior citizens 65 years of age or older, widows 50 years of age or older and disabled persons are eligible for property tax assistance. "Reimbursement up to a maximum of $200 will be paid this year for 1971 property taxes, the amount of reimbursement to be based on a percentage of household income up to $7,500 a year," he added.

"Specifically," Foster said, "you will qualify for tax assistance if:

- "You or your spouse living with you, are 65 years of age as of Dec. 31, 1971;
- "You are a widow and have attained 50 years of age as of Dec. 31, 1971;
- "You are permanently disabled, no matter what your age, and are unable to make a living because of any physical or mental impairment which can be expected to continue indefinitely."

West End wanderings

Remember when?

By MAUREEN RUFÉ
Pocono Record Reporter

GILBERT — If you happen to be one of those nostalgic people who keep saying, "Remember when . . ." or "What ever happened to . . .," maybe the West End is for you.

The real charm of this rural part of the county, according to several new residents, is the fact that many things have not changed in the West End in the last 10 or 20 or even 30 years.

When asked what some of those things were, residents who shopped at the Brodheadsville shopping center this weekend mentioned the following things:

- ... cake walks, church suppers, homemade bread and township picnics
- ... fly paper, mouse traps, and bird nests
- ... oil cloth on the table, a cold cellar, and a parlor
- ... square dancing, drumming newlyweds, and stealing the bride
- ... people solving their own problems without a psychiatrist
- ... people who don't know what calories are, and best of all, don't care
- ... people who ate organic foods before they were called that and who don't need to recycle cans because they don't have any
- ... hanging blankets out the window to air and wash on the line to dry
- ... people who can't run water or go to the bathroom when the electricity goes out

... using brooms and rag carpets and not knowing what spray wax is

... housewives who collect bees wax and can vegetables and make jelly

... going to the Gilbert Hotel on New Year's Eve

... living at home until you get married

... horse drawn things

... furniture and houses that never wear out and stay in the family

... cutting your own Christmas tree

... picking goose berries and planting a garden

... parents speaking in Pennsylvania Dutch when they don't want their children to know what they are saying

... chores

... buying some meat somewhere and hiding the bag so your butcher doesn't see it

... shooting a turkey for Thanksgiving

... sleigh riding

... haunted houses, vacant lots, and roads without stoplights

... milk with cream on the top

... nuts with the shells still on

... knowing who your neighbor is and caring

... mailboxes

And the many other things that most people can only remember and West Enders can still enjoy.

Why county dislikes welfare

That investigating team set up to oversee welfare programming in Monroe County is going to conduct a survey to find out why citizens do not want state and federal programs.

Well, we can save them the trouble. Rightly or wrongly, people have developed an attitude about both welfare and state and federal programs that makes all three unpalatable in the extreme.

People have read or heard all too often of the unsavory mess many such programs develop into in places like Philadelphia and New York. They hear of massive bureaucratic inefficiency and waste, and envision their own hard-earned tax dollars taking that same route.

They also have seen such programs burst forth with high promises, described as panaceas to our every urban and human ill — and they have seen these programs inevitably fail to live up to their advance billing.

People also are more than a little suspicious about the state and federal governments offering funds for that program or this. They aren't foolish enough to believe anyone gives anything to anyone else for nothing. Something must be given in return, and in this case, people fear that something is going to be controlled.

The Washington purse strings are also forms of control strings, they feel, and they have seen and heard of enough such situations to make them extremely leery of government help.

Those are only a few of the reasons welfare programs aren't wanted in this county. There are others, too — ignorance, prejudice, hostility to the very word "welfare" and the people on it; lack of understanding about what these proposed programs will do; an old-fashioned, head-in-the-sand attitude that pretends problems these programs are intended to solve will go away if you ignore them; and a desire to avoid change at all costs.

These are the attitudes and feelings that will have to be altered before any progress is made in the human factor here in Monroe County. These are also the things that must be changed before the people want those state and federal welfare programs.

We're not proud of those attitudes and feelings listed above, although we can understand them. We state them only because the time has come, perhaps, to begin to look at ourselves rather closely, and check for the imperfections as well as the apparent beauties.

Payroll out of control

Gov. Milton Shapp plans to put more people on the state payroll.

Those who listened to the Shapp promises of a cut in the state payroll made in the 1970 gubernatorial campaign and those who heard him criticize former Governor Raymond Shafer for the increase in the state payroll during the latter's gubernatorial reign are astonished at the governor's audacity.

Mr. Shapp claims that more than 3,000 additional state employees will be required to operate his budget for the fiscal year. That budget projects a total expenditure figure of more than $6 billion.

Not only is the governor's plan surprising in view of what he has said about economy in the past, but it is even more surprising in view of the report of his own appointed task force, which recently recommended a cut of 7 per cent in state government personnel.

The task force suggested the abolishment of 7,690 jobs. Now, several weeks after the task force reported, Mr. Shapp has asked for 1,900 more workers.

Editorially, we had predicted that the Shapp administration would not cut the payroll as a result of the task force findings.

The task force found that in the department of public assistance alone there are 1,446 employees who are not needed. Yet, the governor, in his budget, asked for funds for an additional 2,208 workers in that department, which is already over-stuffed.

If the governor should get his additional workers as requested and if the report of the task force is ignored, the total state payroll will rise to the astounding figure of more than 115,000.

This compares with slightly more than 50,000 state workers at the beginning of the administration of Gov. George M. Leader in 1955.

Obviously, like many other things in state government today, the payroll is completely out of control. And, of course, it is the poor taxpayer who always pays the bill. And, the more the payroll is increased, the more he pays.

Another summit

Merry-go-round

By JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON — For decades, international heroin gangs have sent their deadly wares from Marseilles' back-alley laboratories directly to Mafia distributors in New York City.

But crackdowns have now made this direct trade dangerous for the Corsican criminals in France and their Cosa Nostra counterparts in the New York City area.

Increasingly, they are shipping the addictive white powder through Latin America and the Caribbean, where bribery, bootlegging and bucanering have been respected pursuits since the days of Blackbeard, Henry Morgan and Captain Kidd.

The Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), which only lately has gotten into dope counterespionage, has summarized the problem in a 20-page secret report circulated to a few federal agencies.

Area by area, here is the CIA's picture of this new dope circuit:

Central America — Mexico produces "15 to 20 per cent (perhaps up to 25 per cent) of all heroin used in the United States . . . most notorious of the illicit drug centers in Mexico is Culiacan, capital of the state of Sinaloa.

"It has been called the 'Heroin Capital of Mexico.' Many of the well-to-do townspersons, including those now engaged in legitimate businesses, are said to have gotten their start dealing in narcotics."

The home-grown Mexican heroin is sent to San Diego, Los Angeles, Seattle, Denver, Phoenix, Albuquerque, Houston, Fort Worth and Dallas.

Mexican 'fixes'

Our own investigation has turned up a government-protected dope "shooting parlor" in Juarez, Mexico. Young American addicts from El Paso, some on military drug withdrawal programs, simply cross into Mexico to get a "fix."

Panama, whose foreign minister Juan Tack was recently exposed by us as sanctioning dope traffic, is "one of the great contraband centers of the world," reports the CIA. Heroin pours in from Lima and Santiago, cocaine from Guayaquil and Quito, in Ecuador, and from Colombia. European and Asian dope exporters also use Panama as a transshipment point.

Costa Rica opium crops have been discovered recently "in gardens, in a cemetery, and on the slopes of Irazu Volcano." There are unconfirmed reports of clandestine labs.

The Caribbean — Nicaragua may be a "transit point for heroin shipped north from South America via Panama to the United States," says the CIA.

Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands have heroin operations run by "Cuban exiles and Puerto Ricans in the United States (who) act as middle men . . . while Argentinians, Chileans, Uruguayans, and nationals of other transshipment countries act as couriers."

Guadeloupe, Curacao, Aruba and Trinidad are also named by the CIA as "steppingstones" for shipment of heroin, cocaine, hashish and marijuana to the United States.

South America — "Bigtime operators with international connections and innumerable small-scale smugglers called 'hornigas' (ants) cross the slevielike borders with impunity," alleges the CIA.

"The busy ports of Barranquilla, Rio de Janeiro, Montevideo, Buenos Aires, Valparaiso, Antofagasta, Callao, Guayaquil, and Buenaventura act as funnels . . . Smuggler planes, ranging from Piper Cubs to DC-3s, and even to four-engine Lockheed Constellations . . . are used," says the secret CIA report.

Official corruption

"Most of the drug traffic in South America involves marijuana, which is grown extensively in Colombia, Brazil, and Paraguay and coca leaves and cocaine produced in Bolivia, Peru, Chile and Ecuador."

But there is also some opium production in Colombia and Ecuador.

Drugs with Spanish flavor

"An Italian shipping line is currently involved in smuggling heroin from Marseilles, France, to Valparaiso, Chile, via Panama," says the CIA, without naming the shipping line.

"In smuggling by air . . . couriers are low-ranking members of the smuggling ring with long police records as pickpockets, petty thieves, or prostitutes and are regarded as expendable." The air smuggling would be impossible without "the complicity of corrupt officials," points out the CIA.

Paraguay, as we reported earlier, is a key transshipment center, but there are also widespread narcotics operations in Brazil, Argentina and in Chile whose capital of Santiago supports "one of the biggest narcotics rings on the continent."

It has branch offices "in New York, Miami, Colon, London, Georgetown, Manaus, Sao Paulo, Buenos Aires and elsewhere."

Concludes the CIA: "The flow of heroin from European laboratories through Latin America to the United States is increasing." It results in part from "the integration of heroin traffic with well-established Latin American smuggling operations . . ."

Lester Coleman, M.D.

Our 6-year old child has some kind of an infection every few weeks. We have been told he may have a deficiency of gamma-globulin and that this accounts for his infections. Can a doctor tell if this is so without testing for it?

Mrs. K. R., Wis.

Dear Mrs. R.: It is well established that some children may have a deficiency or even a total absence of gamma-globulin. The result is that antibodies against infection are reduced in the blood stream, making a child more susceptible to repeated infections.

It is suspected that this disorder, which occurs more frequently in males, has a hereditary background. Occasionally it occurs in adults and may be acquired rather than congenital in origin.

This condition is first suspected when a child is rarely free of some kind of infection. Recurring attacks of pneumonia, sinusitis, ear infections and failure of ordinary wounds to heal readily, places the doctor on the alert to a deficiency of G.G.

There need not be any speculation about this condition because there are now excellent blood studies which can, once and for all, establish its presence.

Once it is positively proven to exist, children can be treated with regular replacement doses of gamma-globulin. In this way, the amount circulating in the blood can be maintained.

These gamma-globulin injections coupled with the use of antibiotics can significantly reduce the nature and the severity of the repeated infections.

What is a "soldier's heart?" Is this the same as battle fatigue?

Miss J. S., Tex.

Dear Miss S.: No, the two conditions are totally unrelated. A "soldier's heart" is another name for "effort or heart neurosis." Actually, these are all names that describe intense physical fatigue with palpitation, breathlessness and a sense of

The Pennsylvania Story

Lame legislature

HARRISBURG — When Pennsylvania's legislative knights returned to the crusades on Capitol Hill last week following their extended election recess, they found the goose hanging high.

For some, the bird was completely out of sight!

Pennsylvania's Legislature is now a "lame duck" Legislature.

From now until the 1973 Legislature convenes in January, legislative deliberations in the interim will have the goose status.

This of course is because a number of lawmakers in both House and Senate are simply finishing out their terms — some voluntarily, some involuntarily, the latter thanks to the April 25 Primary.

What this means is somewhat significant, and one good reason why the remainder of the 1972 session may well wind up at the finish line by early fall, as many a legislative leader now feels.

Lame duck sessions usually are listless affairs from beginning to end inasmuch as those lawmakers who are merely finishing out their present terms without expectation of returning next year, inevitably have little zest for straining themselves.

Campaign-wise they have nothing to gain; they're out of the race anyway.

Session almost devoid

This invariably produces a session almost devoid of great and noble theatrics or earth-shattering legislative moves. For those limping along until the end of their present term, it's merely a question of marking time — the wind having been removed from their sails.

This is part of the story as to why a lame duck session usually becomes a dull and oftentimes inconsequential gathering.

There is another reason however, which while on a different vein nevertheless is equally influential in producing oftentimes lackadaisical lame duck sessions.

Prior to the beginning of the election recess last month, legislative action was "delayed" on some of the administration's "critical" legislative gems, that is, the more controversial tid-bits.

Because of the controversial nature of the legislation in question there were those (re-election seeking) lawmakers who insisted final legislative decisions be delayed until after the primary runoff. Had this not been the case it is doubtful whether legislative leaders could have mustered the support needed.

Adn by not bringing the issue to a head prior to the primary, Administration Democratic lawmakers seeking party and Administration blessing did not have it laid on the line: support the legislation, or else.

Prior to primary

At that time — prior to the primary, that is — those concerned with returning to their legislative seats would have had little choice, if they wished party support, had the controversial issues been pushed to the hill. At this time — with the Primary over and the tally counted — the question and need of party support is somewhat meaningless; meaningless, that is, for those who lost in their renomination bid last month. In such circumstance virtually nothing remains in the "persuasion closet" for legislative leaders. For the lame duck lawmaker it's merely a question of: "So what?"

In fact in many instances, lame ducks quite frequently do not feel impelled even to turn up for the remaining legislative sessions.

Insofar as 1972 is concerned, many prime legislative issues remain to be acted upon and the action — or inaction — of lame duck lawmakers could be critical at this point.

Wallace power

Who's on Third? All three of the leading Democratic candidates are on base. Wallace on first, McGovern on second and Humphrey on third — with Teddy Kennedy still on the bench.

The results of the latest primaries strengthen each of the top candidates. Humphrey gained most but not enough to open a significant lead over McGovern.

In Ohio, Sen. McGovern showed that he could get a substantial labor vote and in Indiana, Wallace proved that he is far more than a regional candidate.

Wallace cannot be ignored. He will not get the nomination and he will be nobody's running mate. But he will be a force at the convention and McGovern is already busy courting his supporters.

Wallace's views on busing, tax reform and welfare will find some expression in the platform.

About J. Edgar Hoover. Three things not widely known: At the start of World War II, FDR asked Hoover to take over worldwide intelligence gathering. He advised against it.

Hoover always opposed outlawing the Communist Party. He also never wanted the FBI to absorb the police powers of the states.

Things to come. Federal approval of the long-debated Alaskan pipeline is expected soon. The project: a 4 ft. conduit carrying 4 billion barrels of oil per day for 789 miles across Alaska and costing $2.7 billion.

When Interior Secretary Rogers Morton announces his decision, he will cite three advantages: The oil is urgently needed; it will avert a price rise and may well reduce prices so that an average family user can save as much as $23 a year. The environmentalists will renew their opposition.

Bonn's governmental crisis wanes. The attempt by the conservative opposition to overthrow the Brandt government is backfiring. West German public opinion is rallying behind Chancellor Willy Brandt despite setbacks in two recent bi-elections. There is now a better prospect that the treaty of friendship and nonaggression with Russia and Poland will be ratified.

U.S. correspondents beware. American reporters wanting to get into China will need to be wary of efforts to compromise their independence.

The reason: Reporters of two leading Japanese newspapers have been informed by Peking that they can remain in China only on assurance they will write nothing "hostile," which means nothing critical of the regime.

Trade with China unpromising. China's internal trade is growing slightly but is still minute. Latest figures show that China's share of total world trade is seven per cent.

Thus, China's trade is less than Hong Kong's total trade, half of Australia's and 11 per cent of Japan's.

On a per capita basis, the smallness of China's trade is even more striking. In value it amounts to $5 per capita compared to India's $7 per capita, Japan's $369, Australia's $789 and Hong Kong's $1,355.

Mass transit vs. the automobile. Congestion and pollution are driving more cars off city streets. The time may be near when more people will be saying: We are driving less and enjoying it more.

Already several large cities — Washington, D.C., Atlanta, Rome, Tokyo — are taking steps to reduce the level of private automobile traffic. Atlanta is cutting its bus fares from 40 cents to 25 cents and Rome is providing free bus travel during rush hours on weekdays. The District of Columbia approach is to consider a 50-cent-a-day parking tax in all downtown garages.

Stories Behind Words

By William Penfield

Win One's Spurs

Spurs, during the age of chivalry, were the special badge of knighthood. A young man, after having undergone years of training beginning when he was about 12 years of age, underwent a ceremony, including fasting, receiving the sacrament and vowing to devote himself to a noble life.

At the close of the ceremony he knelt and was given a soft blow on the shoulders with the flat side of a sword. Then the one who thus dubbed him a knight gave him a pair of gilt spurs.

From this practice arose the expression "to win one's spurs," meaning to attain knighthood. The expression acquired the meaning of to achieve the utmost in any line or profession.

Just Between Us—

By Bobby Westbrook

It was bound to happen sometime. With all the organized activity around here two organizations inevitably were going to schedule meetings at the same place at the same time.

But the collision needn't have been on such a grand scale as the sanfu which hit the Music Club and the Junior Woman's Club the other night.

The Music Club, entertaining all sorts of big wigs, had changed the date of their meeting and scheduled it for the Stroud Community House, which is a historic and impressive place to entertain visiting VIP's.

Music Club members were thrilled and excited to meet on arriving all these young and attractive women. "My what a big meeting we're going to have," they observed, "but where did all these young people come from?"

Meanwhile, the Juniors, arriving for their regular meeting night in the club rooms they've occupied for 50 years, for their May meeting, which is the only closed meeting of the year when they have a no-holds-barred discussion of projects and proceedings, were non-pulsed to find the room full of strangers

On Arbor Day

A report of the Arbor Day program conducted by the club at Pleasant Valley Manor on Friday, April 28, was given by Mrs. Carl Denz, chairman who commended the Pleasant Valley High School music groups for their participation.

The program was opened with the invocation by club president, Mrs. Robert Hartman.

The Pleasant Valley High School choruses under the direction of Mrs. Raymond Vanderslice presented "Fly Me to the Moon" and "It's a Grand Night for Singing" with the girls chorus; "Hey Look Me Over", boy's chorus; and a group of a final medley climaxed by the Hallelujah Chorus from "The Messiah."

Accompanists were Lorrie Ridenour, Cindy Krome and Wanda Kunkle. Mrs. Russell Hamblin spoke on the history of Arbor Day, celebrating its 100th anniversary.

The spruce tree which was planted had been donated by Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Deibert.

Mrs. Denz called attention to the fact that the tree planted by the club last year, had a nesting robin in it for this year's ceremony.

RHEUMATISM
By Dr. Thomas F. Snyder
D.C. Q.C.O.

There are many different kinds of rheumatism named according to the parts affected. Rheumatism affecting the nerves is called Neuritis, affecting the joints, Arthritis, the muscles, Myalgia, the sciatic nerve, Sciatica, the limber area of the back, Lumbago, and so forth. The cause of rheumatism is pressure upon the nerves weakening the nerve and the tissue they supply. These weakened tissues have an affinity for the acid in the blood stream which gives rise to the pain attending rheumatism. By removing the pressure upon the nerves through Chiropractic adjustments, health is restored. (One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the scientific practice of Chiropractic, written by Dr. Thomas F. # Write to know

The people in The Pocono Record circulation area have a "Write to Know" — and The Record will try to provide the answers in the "Write to Know" column. The column, designed to answer any questions or solve any problems (consumer, government or anything else) will appear every Monday on the first page of the second section. Send all questions to "Write to Know," The Pocono Record, 511 Lenox St., Stroudsburg, Pa. 18360. Questions should be in writing and signed. No telephone calls, please.

Q. — I have ordered a new car during the wage and price freeze, at an agreed price. It took the company nine weeks to deliver the car, with a brand new price. Of course the price freeze was lifted. Can they do this? Looks like they deliberately delayed delivery of the car.

J.P., Stroudsburg

A. — According to a local auto dealer your problem is not uncommon and you are one of many. Dealers say whatever the price the car has when it is delivered is the price they have to go with. If you could prove the delivery of the car was deliberately delayed, then you might have a case. But the possibility of that happening is unlikely when the facts of the freeze come to light. Prices on cars have gone up twice since the freeze and transportation and handling charges also took a leap. Still, with the seven per cent excise tax off the price, many automobiles cost less than before the freeze. In short, you would have to prove deliberate stalling in order to dispute the price.

Q. — I would like to know if there is a law that says you should have a fence around a large size pool. We have this pool just down the road that my child and few of the other neighborhood children have been around and it just scares me to death when they go around it. If there is anything I can do about this pool, I would like to be referred to that source.

Mrs. T.R., Marshalls Creek

A. — According to swimming pool distributors there is no state law requiring a fence around a swimming pool unless the pool is commercial. Private pools only have to have a fence around them if it is a local ordinance. You would have to check your supervisors or planners on this. If there is no such ordinance for your area, it might be worthwhile to petition for one. It behooves the pool owner to have the fence for his own protection. If you have a pool on your property you are liable for any accidents even if the victim was there without your permission.

Q. — I am interested in purchasing a mobile home for the first time. Can you refer me to the appropriate source to obtain literature on the subject?

D.N., Stroudsburg

A. — The Council of Better Business Bureaus in cooperation with the Mobile Home Manufacturers Association has prepared a leaflet entitled "Mobile Homes — How to Choose, Where to Put, How to Finance." You can obtain a free copy by contacting the council at 1150 17th St., N.W., Washington, D.C. More than 70 per cent of the mobile homes being built today are built to established national standards. A 100-page copy of this standard, which was established by representatives of every phase of the building industry can be obtained for $2.25 from the Mobile Home Manufacturers Association, Department BBB, 6650 North Northwest Highway, Chicago, Ill.

Airport reopening under new owners

By SKIP TAGGART

Pocono Record Reporter
EAST STROUDSBURG — After months of uncertainty and minimal activity the Stroudsburg-Pocono Airport will "officially" open June 1 under the new management of two New Englanders, Gene Benben and Steve Tsois, both veteran pilots.

Benben, who will assume the actual management duties at the field, describes himself as "a frustrated chemist" who one day turned his back on all the chemicals of his old job.

"I stopped and asked myself which I would rather do, fly or stay where I was. I had plans to become a corporate pilot but..."

"I was working as chief pilot and chief flight instructor at an airport in Connecticut when I heard about this place so I thought I would come down here and give it a try."

When Benben first saw the condition of the airport he realized he had quite a job on his hands but it wasn't until after all the papers were signed and the actual re-opening work began when he started to find some of the underlying problems.

"Ever since 'Day One' the phone number here has been 421-8900 but the telephone company wouldn't let us have that number because of the unpaid bill left on it by the previous operator. It presents quite a problem because it's the number published in all the information manuals this airport appears in.

"If I have to get a new number, that means there's only a thousand different people that have to be notified," said Benben. He has since been told, however, the old number will be re-installed without any difficulty.

The new operator has a comprehensive long-range plan for the field but his immediate concern is to overcome the somewhat adverse reputation that has attached itself to the Stroudsburg-Pocono Airport.

"I find it very hard to believe what went on here before I came but I'm hearing the same thing from so many people it must have been true," says Benben.

"If I go downtown and introduce myself as the new manager of the airport, everyone backs off a few steps. But if I just say I'm a new businessman in town they welcome me with open arms. When they later find out who I am they only back off half a step."

Irv Siewert, who followed Benben from his old job in Connecticut, will serve as chief flight instructor at the East Stroudsburg airport but right now his working day is spent "flying" a tractor and roller across the grass surrounding the runway, trying to shape up the appearance of the field.

"I feel more like a farmer than a pilot right now," grins Benben, "but I want this place to look like an airport when we officially open June 1."

He spoke of his plans to establish a charter service originating from the field, offering the services of their planes to businessmen and industries all over the state.

"It's impractical for a company to use its jet for 200 or 300 mile short jumps and that's a void we'll be offering to fill," said the operator. Until the service is better established they hope to lease a light twin engine aircraft before purchasing their own.

The scenic flights and flight school are the two things Benben plans to get into the air right away. "We have two full time and two part time instructors so we're in pretty good shape there." He plans to acquire more planes as he develops the need.

"Well, it's stopped raining," said Benben. "The sun's out and I'll be getting the same phone number after all. That's a good sign. I hope it's a sign of what's to come."

Youths suggest safety programs

Teen attends driver council

EAST STROUDSBURG — After this past weekend, 16-year-old Debra Lynn Fritz of East Stroudsburg is giving some added thought to driver safety.

A sophomore at East Stroudsburg High School, Miss Fritz was selected to participate in the first meeting of the Pennsylvania Youth Traffic Safety Council held Friday and Saturday at the Hershey Motor Lodge.

Gov. Milton Shapp and Lt. Gov. Ernest P. Kline addressed the group of nearly 100 student representatives assembled from throughout the state on various aspects of traffic safety problems and the need for developing programs to combat them.

After several workshop sessions, the students reported back with potential solutions that ran the gamut from driver training to classes in basic auto mechanics in case of highway breakdowns.

"We wanted to start teaching younger kids the importance of safe driving by having regular courses at school and in our classroom work," Miss Fritz recounted, noting she recently learned how to drive in such a course at E.S.H.S.

"Another suggestion she related was a proposed dollar day to be held throughout the state."

"We would have stands set up and every car that came past would be stopped," she explained. "If they had their seat belt on, we would give them a dollar and, if not, we would give them a pamphlet to tell them how important the seat belt is to their safety."

Miss Fritz believes the dollar day may become a reality next summer.

Another suggestion concerned written driver tests as opposed to oral ones.

"When the state police ask you the questions, your mind goes blank, but if the tests were written you could think the questions over a few times before you had to answer them," she offered, noting the students' reasoning.

"The conference was mainly to tell us what they wanted from us. Now it's up to us to tell other people what we are trying to do to get them to help us."

Miss Fritz and the six other students in her committee, which represents their regional district, plan to meet at Nazareth High School in two weeks to continue the program planning and develop ways to involve the community. In addition, the students will form subcommittees at their various schools to plan such things as fund raising displays at local fairs.

"It was really a good thing," Miss Fritz said enthusiastically of the conference. "It made me more conscious of driver safety and made a lot of people more understanding of just how much safety counts."

EAST STROUDSBURG — Barbara Jean Stokes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Stokes of Stroudsburg, has been selected as valedictorian of Notre Dame High School's class of 1972 with Mary Jean Bensinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bensinger of Stroudsburg, named as salutatorian.

Ranking highest in scholastic achievement to obtain the valedictorian honor, Miss Stokes has been a member of both the junior and senior national honor societies through her high school years and has served as editor of the school newspaper, L'Echo de Notre Dame, for the past three years.

Active in the drama troupe and glee club, she has been a staff member of The Odyssey, Notre Dame's Yearbook, as well as serving as an officer in various school organizations. During her junior year, Miss Stokes attended East Stroudsburg State College where she earned college credits in French.

A four-year staff member of L'Echo de Notre Dame, Miss Bensinger has also been a member of both the junior and senior national honor societies. An active member of the Quem Quaeilis Troupe, she has been involved in glee club and cheerleading, as well as serving on the yearbook staff and student council.

Miss Bensinger plans to enter Ithaca College in Ithaca, N.Y., in the fall to continue her education.

Art show presented at Dutot

DELAWARE WATER GAP — Youthful works of art created by Delaware Water Gap children from age three through 12 opened the 1972 season of the Antoine Dutot School and Museum here in a show held Saturday and Sunday.

Colorfully displayed were the fruits of the museum's arts and crafts classes, held during the past six months, which ran the gamut from bean pictures and string paintings to hand-woven baskets and flower arrangements made of burlap.

The show culminated the six-month program supervised by Mrs. Clifford Hauser and Mrs. John Sovak. All together, more than 40 youngsters took part in the weekly Saturday afternoon classes during which instruction was given in water color painting, crayon drawing, collages, basket weaving, and the making of bird feeders and various other construction projects.

The goal of the program, according to Mrs. Sovak, was to provide activities and instruction for the children that are not available to them under other auspices.

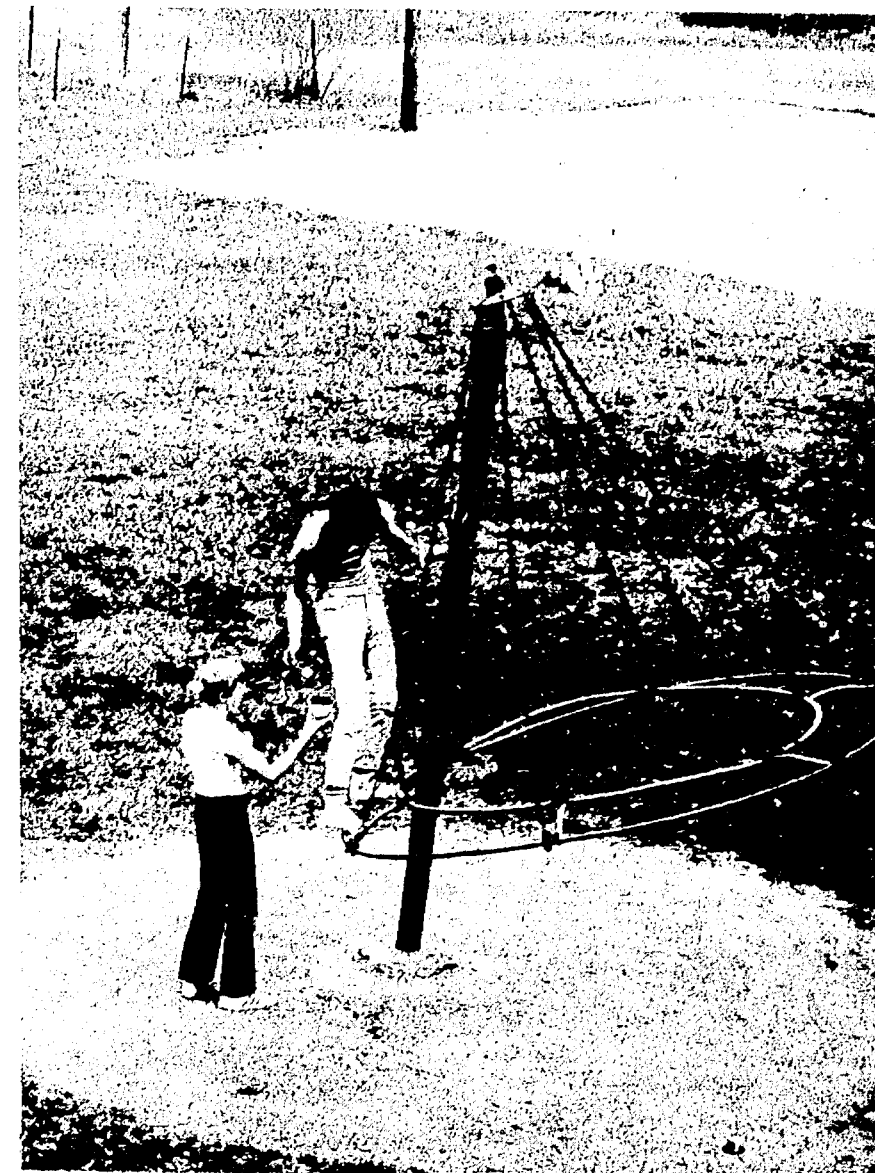

For the most part, the work on display was representative of the most regular attendees: Anne and Beth Higgins; Sandra Holland; Tomio Inomata; Rebecca and Vanessa Kaiser; Billy Kresge; Philip Lightner; Keven, Kristen and Steffen Manheim; Jennifer and Jessica Miller; Joann Powlus; Sherri Singer; Brenda Snow; and Bradley and Brendan Sweeney.

Ohio man injured in mishap

EAST STROUDSBURG — An Ohio truck driver is listed in fair condition at the General Hospital of Monroe County after he was injured in a two-truck crash on Interstate Route 80 early Sunday morning.

Hurley Smith, of Olmsted Falls, Ohio, was taken to the hospital by the Central Pocono Ambulance after his truck collided with the rear of another rig while traveling East on I-80 near the junction of that highway with I-81E.

A state police spokesman from the Mount Pocono Troop 5 barracks said Smith was apparently unaware of the slower moving truck ahead of him, driven by Jesse Howell of Lake Ariel. Smith's truck crashed into the rear of Howell's and then evidently jackknifed.

Los Angeles wins NBA title

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI)—Goliath Wilt Chamberlain, playing with a severely sprained right wrist that was expected to keep him on the bench, scored 24 points and pulled down 29 rebounds as the Los Angeles Lakers ended a dozen years of frustration Sunday night by beating the New York Knicks 114-100 for their first National Basketball Association title.

Beaten in the NBA finals seven previous times including a seven-game defeat by the Knicks two years ago, the Lakers rolled up their fourth straight victory in the best of seven series after dropping the opener by 22 points.

Chamberlain, who led the Philadelphia 76ers to a league title in 1967, was 10 for 14 from the field and was voted the outstanding player of the final series to earn himself a new car.

Los Angeles capped a season in which it posted an alltime

NBA record of 69-13, including a record 33 triumphs in a row, and knocked off the defending champion Milwaukee in the semifinals.

The 7-foot-1, 275-pound Chamberlain was mobbed after demoralizing the Knicks with his scoring, rebounding and shot-blocking.

Gail Goodrich led the Lakers' attack with 25 points, 16 of them in the second half, while Jerry West added 24 points and nine assists, second year forward Jim McMillan collected 20 points.

For the Knicks, Walt Frazier led the way with 31 points. Earl Monroe added 16 in a reserve role and Jerry Lucas threw in 14.

It was a particularly satisfying victory for West, runnerup in the league's MVP voting the past three years. He has been with the club ever since its franchise was transferred from Minneapolis to Los Angeles in 1960.

Houston golf postponed

HOUSTON (UPI)—A two-inch deluge Sunday rained out the final 18 holes of the heretofore $125,000 Houston Open.

The end of the 72-hole tournament, which was washed out in 1966, was re-scheduled for a 10 a.m. today tee-off with Bruce Devlin holding a two-stroke lead.

Peter Tesso, a PGA official, said the 8,998-yard Westwood Country Club course was playable at 7:30 a.m. but the persistent rains resumed. The scheduled 9:05 a.m. tee-off was postponed for almost four hours then called off when more rains came.

Only a few players were warming up and none was on the course.

The Doral and Greensboro opens and the Byron Nelson Classic also suffered one-day, rain-forced delays this year.

Gusty, erratic winds hampered the second and third rounds and Saturday's 18 holes were played during scattered rain and under a tornado alert.

Owner of Derby winner says horse 'good as any'

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—Riva Ridge's trainer asserted Sunday that the 1972 Kentucky Derby winner is "as good as any race horse that's ever been around."

"We won't go back to Man O' War, that's before my time," said victorious Lucien Laurin.

"But you can count all the good ones since then—Count Fleet, Kelso, Citation. What did Citation do that was better than my colt has done? When was the last time the Experimental Handicap highweight won a Kentucky Derby?"

Whether or not Riva Ridge eventually ranks with the turf immortals remains for history to decide. But there was no doubt among the men who sent out horses to challenge Riva Ridge in the $182,800 Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs Saturday that the record crowd of 130,564 saw a real champion in action. They agreed it will be a tough job to stop Riva Ridge from sweeping the Triple Crown.

That coveted prize has been beyond the ability of every horse since Citation in 1948 went on to win the Preakness and the Belmont Stakes after winning the Kentucky Derby.

None of the trainers here are eager to challenge Riva Ridge again at Pimlico in the Preakness on May 20.

No Le Haze finished second with a strong stretch run that carried him from about 10 lengths behind Riva Ridge after six furlongs to within three lengths with about a sixteenth of a mile left in the 1 1/4 mile classic.

But in the last 50 yards No Le Haze lost a little ground and trainer Homer Pardue wants "to study it for awhile" before deciding upon No Le Haze's next race.

"Hold Your Peace was third. He is going to Arlington Park and probably will run in the Hawthorne Derby on Preakness Day.

"Riva Ridge absolutely fooled me and he's absolutely a top horse," said trainer Arnold Winick. "I thought Hold Your Peace could beat him, but he came back to be just what he was last year."

Riva Ridge won seven of nine in 1971 and earned $503,283 for the Meadow Stable of the Cheneery Family. This year he now has won three of four races and earned $197,948.

"It's a damn shame that he got beaten in the Everglades this year. It shouldn't have happened," said Laurin. In that race, the colt was trapped in a pocket along the rail and couldn't get room to run until it was too late.

Laurin, certain he has found the formula for training triple crown winners, won't let that happen again. So he told jockey Ron Turcotte, to go to the lead, not to fight the horse, and let him go on if he wanted to.

Riva Ridge went to the front. Hold Your Peace repeatedly tried to draw even with him but never could make it. The effort took its toll and he faded in the stretch. Then Riva Ridge easily turned back the belated stretch challenge by No Le Haze, who never looked as though he could overtake the winner.

Bruins down Rangers, 3-2

NEW YORK (UPI)—Bobby Orr scored two goals and set up a third while his team was shorthanded to power Boston to a 3-2 victory over the New York Rangers in a bruising penalty-filled game Sunday afternoon that gave the Bruins a commanding 3-1 advantage in their Stanley Cup final series.

The Bruins can wrap up their second Cup in three years when the best-of-seven series shifts to Boston for the fifth game Tuesday night.

Just two days after he received the Hart Trophy as the National Hockey League's most valuable player for the third consecutive year, Orr gave Boston a quick 2-0 lead by scoring twice within a span of 2:51 early in the first period, the second goal coming on a power play.

Orr, who faces surgery on his left knee at the end of the season, then fed Don Marcotte for Boston's third goal at 16:33 of the second period while New York had a man advantage.

Trailing 3-0, the Rangers finally got on the scoreboard 2:05 later when Ted Irvine split the Bruin defense after taking a pass from Pete Stenkowski.

Johnston has allowed only three goals in two games in this series, having won the second game, 2-1.

The three points for Orr gave him a total of 22 during the 1972 playoffs, breaking his own mark of 20 by a defenseman.

Both teams came out flexing their muscles and referee Bruce Hood whistled 78 minutes in penalties in the first period, including eight minutes for fighting and two 10-minute misconducts. This still fell far short of the Stanley Cup record of 132 minutes for a single period set between these same two teams April 11, 1970. In all, a total of 104 penalty minutes was called in the game.

Orr scored the first goal with the game only 5:26 old as he took a pass from Mike Walton and wove through the New York defense to beat Giacomin on his left side. At 8:17, his shot from the point went through a maze of Ranger players to beat the screened Giacomin.

Beale wins at Ohio

NEW BREMEN, Ohio (UPI)—Rollie Beale of Toledo, Ohio, won the 40-lap feature at the New Bremen Speedway from Johnny Parsons of Reseda, Calif., Sunday to become the first two-time winner of the season on the USAC circuit.

Beale passed Parsons on the 13th lap and led the rest of the way, beating Parsons by three car lengths. Beale was timed in 12:05.53, or nearly seven seconds faster than the track record set two years ago by Larry Dickson of Marietta, Ohio, who finished fourth behind Bob Pratt of Union City, Ind. Bobby Griffin of Fort Wayne, Ind., suffered possible internal injuries when his car plowed into the fence on the second turn during warmup laps.

Gary Bettenhausen . . . new speed king.

Bettenhausen passes 190 to set Indianapolis mark

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—Veteran Gary Bettenhausen

Sunday became the first driver to top the 190 miles per hour in practice for the May 27 Indianapolis 500-mile auto race.

Bettenhausen of Tinley Park, Ill., wheeled his Roger Penske-prepared English-built McLaren around the famed 2 1/2-mile oval at an unofficial 190.315 m.p.h. to post the month's top speed.

In tire tests last month, Bobby Orr of Albuquerque, N.M., posted a 190.8 in a Dan Gurney Eagle for the fastest unofficial lap ever turned at the speedway. Official times are those posted in time trials and the race.

Altogether five of the 24 cars to take to the paved surface in Sunday's session were above 180 miles per hour. All five drivers had already been initiated into the 180 m.p.h. club before. Peter Revson of Redondo Beach, Calif.—the track record holder whose marks are all but assured of being broken several times in next weekend's two days of time trials—had his team Mc Laren up to 188.324 m.p.h. Behind Revson was Mike Mosley of Clermont, Ind. in an Eagle at 185.874 m.p.h.

Jim Malloy of Denver, the pacesetter for the first week, chalked up a 185.071 while three-time Indianapolis winner A. J. Foyt of Houston had a 184.949 in his own car.

Jim Hurtubise of North Tonawanda, N.Y., had his rear-engine car up to 179.176 m.p.h. and Als drove his roadster to a practice round of 171.265 m.p.h.

Lloyd Ruby of Wichita Falls, Texas, made his maiden appearance on the track in a 1972 Lola-Offenhauser.

Also out for the first time were Jigger Strols of Hammond, Ind., and Carl Williams of Grandview, Mo.

Lee Brayton of Coldwater, Mich., advanced through the third phase of his rookie test and must complete one more round before becoming eligible to attempt qualifications.

Track officials report that 58 of the 81 entries for this year's race are housed at the speedway.

Pearson winner in Winston 500

TALLADEGA, Ala. (UPI)—Mercury driver David Pearson, his nearest challenger black-flagged with five laps to go, won the second annual Winston 500 stock car race Sunday.

Pearson, driving the Wood Brothers-prepared 1970 Mercury that carried A.J. Foyt to victory at Daytona and Ontario earlier this year, duelled Bobby Isaac and Buddy Baker in a three-way race for the last 40 laps.

Pearson easily won it, however, when Isaac's pit crew left his gas cap off during a pit stop 19 laps from the end and he was black-flagged while leading the field on the 183rd of 188 laps.

Isaac, who had won the pole position with a speed of 192.428 mph in a 1972 Dodge, finished second while Baker, in a SLIPPERY ROCK — East Stroudsburg State College lost all three of its matches Saturday and placed sixth in the annual Pennsylvania Conference Tennis Championships.

The doubles team of Chuck Ackerman and Bill Zeeh was defeated in the finals by brother Joe and Tim Brooke of California, 6-3, 7-6.

Ed Burkholder lost to Jerry Simon of Edinboro in the second singles semi-finals, 6-4, 6-4. Ackerman bowed to Jim Kissman of Edinboro at third singles, also in the semi, 6-2, 6-1.

California easily repeated as the team champion, winning the first four singles. Joe Brooke won first singles with Rick Ponte taking second singles, Tim Brooke third and Frederick Brown fourth.

The Vulcans scored 27 points with Edinboro, 18, second, and Indiana and Lock Haven, 17, tied for third. Next came Mansfield, 13, followed by ESSC 9, Bloomsburg 6, Millersville 3, Slippery Rock 2 and Shippensburg 1. Kutztown failed to score.

Warriors salvage split with second game victory

EAST STROUDSBURG — Joe Papi's pitching and hitting earned East Stroudsburg State College a 3-2 victory in the second game and a split in a baseball doubleheader with Mansfield Sunday. The Mounties won the opener, 5-2.

Papi struck out eight batters and allowed only three hits in a 5 2-3-inning stint. He also had two of the Warriors' four hits and drove in a run.

The Warriors scored two runs in the second inning on a pair of walks and singles by Dennis Acker and Papi. They added a third run in the fourth inning on two throwing errors by third baseman Joe Costanzo wrapped around a hit by Papi.

Mansfield came back with two runs in the sixth frame with Tom Brokens slugging a triple and Terry Erway a double. But Tom Brunner came in to relieve Papi and got out of the inning and started a key double play in the seventh.

ESSC defense stands out in spring football game

EAST STROUDSBURG — After Saturday's Red and Black spring football game, they better start thinking up a catchy nickname for the East Stroudsburg State College defense.

The Warriors' defensive alignment stood out in the game which marked the conclusion of the school's 20-day spring football practice.

Like the Minnesota Vikings' Purple People Eaters and the Dallas Cowboys' Dooomsday Defense, the Warrior defenders are sure to gain the main plaudits of the ESSC football fans next season.

Led by end Don Coyer, the ESSC defense caused four fumbles and had four interceptions. Both touchdowns in the game were set up by interceptions.

The team composed of the first offense and second defense came out on top, 8-6. An interception by freshman Dave Wildonger and a return of 28 yards gave the first offense the ball on the three-yard line. Quarterback Jim Emery connected with end Ray Hutchison for the score with Don Kucurik running over for two extra points.

The other touchdown followed an interception by veteran linebacker Hank Kunkel. Taking over on the opposition's 35-yard line, the second offense moved over in eight plays with the payoff a five-yard run by freshman fullback Barry Reed of Leighton.

A pass by second-string quarterback Jim McMahon for two extra points and a tie failed. Both touchdowns came in the second half.

Coyer, who is benefiting greatly from instruction from new ESSC coach Rich Harris, defensive end for the Philadelphia Eagles, pounced on two fumbles and had the game's most tackles including dumping Emery once for a 20-yard loss.

Freshman Mark Cesare of Pen Argyl, making an impressive varsity debut, had one of the interceptions as did veteran Paul Grube.

Despite its mistakes in execution, the two offenses moved the ball well at times. Emery completed 11 of 21 passes for 81 yards including three to fellow freshman Tom Kearney.

McMahon connected on seven of his first ten passes for 114 yards including a 35-yarder to Kucurik. A 71-yard pass play with end Dave Mirra was called back.

Fullback Bill Stowasser gained the most yards, 61, although a pair of big freshman backs Doug Neet and Kurt Miller had the best rushing averages, five yards per carry.

Head Coach Charlie Reese was pleased by the play and noted that his team was much further advanced now than at the same time last year. The 1971 team compiled a 6-3 record.

"The defense looked especially good. I think we have some exceptional young men on defense and defensive coordinator Denny Douds and his staff are doing a great job," Reese said.

"We made some mistakes on offense, but we had to expect this with all new starters and only a few weeks of practice. I thought the offensive line played well and we showed we have some young talent in the backfield," he continued.

Warriors end fifth in track meet

ESSC takes conference relay title

CLARION — East Stroudsburg State College won one of the premier events, the one-mile relay, at the annual Pennsylvania Conference Track and Field Championships Saturday.

The ESSC quartet of Jack Sabol, Bill Stohl, Glenn Renick and Dennis Morrissey established a school record of 3:19.5 in blazing to victory. The old mark was 3:20.8.

Renick ran the fastest quarter of 48.4 while Sabol and Morrissey both ran 50.1 and Stohl 50.8. In winning, the Warriors avenged a defeat to runnerup Slippery Rock (3:20.8) in the conference mile relay at the Penn Relays.

ESSC took three second places, all three units from victory. As a team, Coach Dick DeSchriver's squad placed fifth with 44 points, an improvement of two places from last year.

Slippery Rock easily won the meet with 111 points. Bloomsburg was second with 86½ with Edinboro third, 77, and Millersville fourth, 56. A total of 13 state colleges competed.

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Steve Carlton boosted his record to 5-1 on a seven-hitter and recorded his 1,000th career strikeout Sunday to lead Philadelphia to an 8-3 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

The victory pushed the Phils into first place for the first time since 1964 for about an hour but the New York Mets regained the lead later in the day by downing the San Diego

Padres, 7-6, in 10 innings. Carlton, traded away by St. Louis owner Gussie Busch because he was holding out for a higher salary, struck out 13 before a crowd of 44,880. He reached the 1,000 mark with his sixth strikeout and finished the game with a career total of 1,000.

The Phils wrapped up the game with a four-run third inning off loser Ron Bryant, who was the victim of a costly two-run error by leftfielder Gary Maddox.

Carlton gains fifth win; Phils briefly take first

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Steve Carlton boosted his record to 5-1 on a seven-hitter and recorded his 1,000th career strikeout Sunday to lead Philadelphia to an 8-3 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

The victory pushed the Phils into first place for the first time since 1964 for about an hour but the New York Mets regained the lead later in the day by downing the San Diego

Padres, 7-6, in 10 innings. Carlton, traded away by St. Louis owner Gussie Busch because he was holding out for a higher salary, struck out 13 before a crowd of 44,880. He reached the 1,000 mark with his sixth strikeout and finished the game with a career total of 1,000.

The Phils wrapped up the game with a four-run third inning off loser Ron Bryant, who was the victim of a costly two-run error by leftfielder Gary Maddox.

Ann Landers

'Humor' sickens

Dear Ann Landers: What would you do? Imagine yourself as the principal character in the following situation: You are of no set age. You can be either male or female. You have a cleft palate, known more commonly as harelip. In other words, you have a speech impediment caused by a congenital defect. You are enjoying an evening with friends and someone suggests turning on TV to see "his favorite comedian."

Suddenly he's on the screen telling a joke about "this dog with a harelip that barks funny." Would you try to hide your embarrassment by laughing? Would you leave the room to spare the others discomfort? Can you imagine anything so needlessly cruel as this kind of ridicule? Well, how about the next grabber?

Another TV show — this "hilarious" skit involves a stutler and a victim of cerebral palsy. The comedian plays both parts. He does it to perfection — the labored facial contortions, the tangled utterances, the spastic arm and hand movements. It was a masterful imitation. But can you imagine the anguish this skit must have produced from coast to coast? What about the victims who were watching? Their families? Then after the stutler has painfully picked his way through a particularly long and difficult sentence, his friend's punch line was, "Yeah — that's easy for you to say."

I am writing in the hope that you, the best-read columnist in the country, will print this letter and ask your readers to demand that the networks not permit such sick humor. If enough people complain they can put an end to these brutal blows to handicapped people. Please help, Ann Landers.

Largo, Florida

Dear L.: I am firmly behind your campaign to do something about the cruel insults to the handicapped. Readers, will you help us? Clip this column and send it to the president of the network of your choice. Here are the names and addresses:

Julian Goodman, president of N.B.C., 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, N.Y. 10022.

Charles Ireland, president of C.B.S., 51 W. 52nd Street, New York, N.Y. 10022.

Elton Rule, president of A.B.C., 1330 Avenue of the Americas, New York, N.Y. 10022.

Better yet, get two more copies of this column and send it to the presidents of all three networks. Across the column write, "I agree," and add your name and address.

Dear Ann Landers: A friend of mine (woman in her mid-40's) dropped out of sight for about a month. She said she decided on the spur of the moment to take a trip to the Orient. No one received so much as a postcard from her.

When she returned she looked ten years younger. She claims she had "a wonderful rest." A few of us are sure she had her face lifted. I decided to come right out and ask her. She replied, "Absurd. I did nothing of the kind." Then she offered $10,000 to anyone who could prove otherwise.

My question is this: Is it possible that the job was done so skillfully that even a doctor could not see the telltale scars behind the ears and up into the hairline? Please check with your consultants and let us know.

Unconvinced

Dear U.C.: The consultants say no way. A surgical facelift entails scars from the incisions. A woman who invites inspection in all probability is telling the truth.

Dear Ann Landers: Your reply to the cheated on wife who wanted to phone her friend 2,000 miles away and tell her that Hubby just confessed they had slept together 13 years ago, stank.

You said it would accomplish nothing except to make her husband look like a jerk. Your notion that it didn't matter because it happened 13 years ago shows how little you know about human nature. Hubby had his fun. Why shouldn't the cheated on wife enjoy the pleasure of telling the tramp off? You have no idea what this would do for her ego. I know what I'm talking about because I made such a phone call two years ago — on a hunch. And I was right. The dame confessed, apologized all over the place and thanked me for calling. That call lifted my spirits and I was in a state of exhilaration for two weeks. Reverse yourself, kiddo.

Eye For An Eye

Dear Eye: Thanks for telling us about your cheap trip. It's amazing what some people consider entertainment.

Envies Edith

Bigots may be all right in their place, but would you want your daughter to marry one?

Edith Bunker did the day she said, "I do, I will, and I'll keep doing it until I get it right," to Archie Bunker, the Irish Godfather of All In The Family.

Personally, I love Edith Bunker. There is a simplicity, an honesty, and an inherent kindness in that woman that to some degree I envy.

What's to envy about Edith Bunker? She hasn't read anything current since a cereal box offered an African Violet to people with irregularities. She regards the six o'clock news as a filler between As The World Turns and Roller Derby. She fills up her husband's plate at picnics and apologizes because the baked beans oozed over on his chicken. If Gloria Steinem asked her to make a contribution to her sex she'd say, "Honey, Archie gives at the plant."

What's to envy about Edith? She's a giver and God knows there are few of them left in the world. Edith is at the end of every line whether it be at the bank, the check-out or the clinic. She would drive Archie to the hospital for a paper cut. But she would refuse anesthesia for her own surgery if it cost extra. She would hang a picture over her living room sofa that the milkman's wife painted by number.

She would loan you her new Christmas sweater and wouldn't complain if you sweat in it. She is one of the last of the vanishing breed of listeners... remember them? They are people who sit quietly and look at you in the face when you talk and when they're finished there is a silence. They haven't been thinking of a story they could tell.

Edith has a tolerance toward humanity and unconsciously looks for the bright side. She would find humor in Jane Fonda's acceptance speech for the Oscar.

Actually, Edith is not too complex. What you see is what she is. Edith has never learned about the plastic veneer of sophistication that people cover themselves with. If it were suggested to her that she not refer to Phase 11 as a bar of soap, she'd say, "Am I pronouncing it wrong?"

It is a sad commentary on my life, but I don't know many Edith Bunkers. The people I know still wear dark glasses indoors even though they fall over things. They refuse to have people in for dinner until all their dishes match. They are bored, miserable, depressed and unfulfilled because in 1965, Betty Friedman told them they were. (Would Betty lie?)

I have a theory if anything is ever to be resolved with mankind, it won't be the Archie Bunkers with the wall-to-wall mouth who will do it. And it probably won't be Meathead and his wife Gloria (who put the IN in All In The Family). It will be the Edith Bunkers. Their unselfishness, their regard for human feelings, their patience, their caring and their love of everyone will bring it about.

For living with Archie over a television season, Edith is up for an Emmy this week. (well, Jean Stapleton who created her). She should get the Congressional Medal of Honor.

"After our first Moon landing, I resolved I would never publicly endorse any product or service unless I sincerely believed in it."

Apollo 11 Astronaut, Buzz Aldrin, discusses the Computerized Self-Analysis system in every 1972 Volkswagen.

"Everything after a Moonwalk is a letdown. You just can't top it. So instead, you adjust. You adjust to a world that's a far cry from perfection."

Or at least the kind of perfection that took Buzz Aldrin to the Moon and then brought him back within a quarter mile of an aircraft carrier carrying the President of the United States.

Then it's over and there he is. With a Doctor of Science degree from MIT and a walk on the Moon under his belt, in a world, that at times, seems absolutely chaotic.

Then, something comes along that makes a great deal of sense to him. And he becomes enthused:

"In analogy with the manned space flight programs, past, present and future, which pioneered computer check-out systems, the present VW system compares with the early Mercury flights of Shepard, Grissom and Glenn."

Volkswagen's Computerized Self-Analysis system: If you own a 1972 VW, it means getting the most advanced automotive check-up there is.

"The car, truly, is wired along the same principles as a space craft." (Nothing like asking the man who manned one.)

In its simplest terms, it's a network of check points and sensors throughout the car, each sensor reporting the condition of various key points in the car to one central socket.

The socket, when plugged into a computer, which will be at VW dealers starting later this year, will actually report the condition of your car directly to you.

Altogether, 60 vital service points will be checked. The results will then be printed out on a sheet of paper, in plain English, for you to read.

"Keeping that print-out sheet after each check-up is like checking in with Mission Control when you're 200,000 miles out in space. It gives you a nice, secure feeling."

It also gets you home quicker.

For instance, to check cylinder compression the conventional way today, a mechanic has got to do the following: remove each spark plug, insert a gauge, crank the engine, take a reading, make a decision and then put each spark plug back.

At top speed, the procedure takes 10 minutes and 40 seconds for four cylinders.

With the new VW system, it takes 60 seconds. So there you have it.

Instead of a mechanic telling you what's wrong with your car, now your car and your dealer's computer can tell you.

It took Volkswagen 7 years and enough money to develop and market an entirely new automobile to come out with Computerized Self-Analysis.

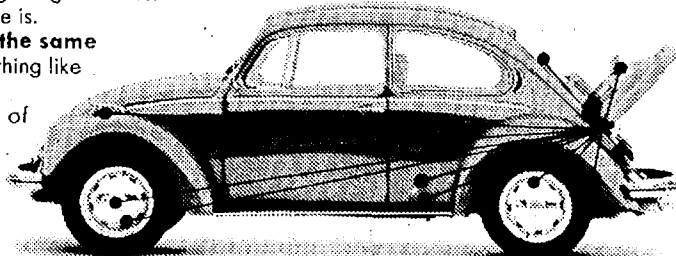

Why such a concentrated effort on service rather than, let's say, a new, longer, lower Beetle?

Basically for the same reason Colonel Buzz Aldrin decided to publicly support it.

The reason is known as progress.

Postscript: Earlier this year, Volkswagen felt it had something advanced enough to show, not only to a man who walked on the Moon, but also a man who was intimately familiar with the subject of computerized check-out and testing.

After a series of meetings and after seeing the system in operation and after learning of the plans to bring in the computers starting later this year, Colonel Aldrin's response, very simply, was: "I'm impressed."

10 GOOD REASONS

why your boy should have a newspaper route.

1. He will earn money of his own.
2. He will learn self-reliance.
3. He will learn to keep records. In doing so he will apply in a practical way the arithmetic he learns in the classroom.
4. He will learn how to handle money and the value of money.
5. He will learn courtesy and how to get along with people.
6. He will learn how to be on time.
7. He will learn how to ration his time.
8. He will be thrilled by the challenge of salesmanship.
9. He will become sharper and brighter.
10. He will be operating a business of his own. He will learn what that is like.

If these are the type of advantages you had as a young boy... wouldn't you like your son to benefit from the same opportunities?

If your son is between 12 and 15 — and you would like to discuss the possibility of his having and managing his own Pocono Record Newspaper Route — just fill out the application below. Mail or bring to any of the offices listed below. Our trained and experienced circulation people will be glad to discuss this with you and your son... at your convenience.

Mock convention selects Sen. Kennedy for president

LEXINGTON, Va. (UPI)—Sen. Edward Kennedy of Massachusetts was drafted on the seventh ballot as the Democratic presidential nominee at the Washington and Lee University mock political convention Saturday night, and Rep. Wilbur Mills of Arkansas was chosen as his vice presidential running mate.

The private university's mock convention has the most accurate record in the nation for predicting the presidential nominee of the party out of power. The student convention has correctly predicted 10 of 14 nominees in its 64-year history. The last time it was wrong was in 1948, when it chose Charles L. McNary instead of Thomas E. Dewey for the GOP.

The students based their votes on the anticipated actions of their real counterparts, who will choose the Democratic nominee at the national convention in Miami Beach starting July 10.

Most delegations received last-minute advice by telephone from party leaders in their states.

Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota came very close to victory on the first two ballots, but Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota moved into contention on the third ballot when Southern supporters of Alabama Gov. George Wallace switched to him.

The move to draft Kennedy began in earnest on the fourth ballot when the Massachusetts delegation cast all its 102 votes for him.

The draft picked up steam on the next ballot when Pennsylvania committed all its 182 votes to Kennedy, and he picked up enough support elsewhere to garner 1,486 votes, just 23 short of the nomination.

Kennedy lost some ground on the sixth ballot, but he polled 1,728 votes on the seventh. Maine Sen. Edmund Muskie started slowly but finished second on the seventh ballot with 928.5 votes. Humphrey wound up third with 204 and McGovern was fourth at 73.

Wallace, who started the day with 336 votes, had only 25 left by the sixth ballot.

Mills, Washington Sen. Henry Jackson, former North Carolina Gov. Terry Sanford and Shirley Chisholm of New York had support only in the early balloting.

Chaplin feared assassination

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Silent film comedian Charles Chaplin was afraid he would be assassinated on his recent visit to the United States to accept a special movie Oscar, his bodyguards say.

William C. Jordan, former Los Angeles police lieutenant who heads Computer Investigations Associated, said:

"He expected to be shot over here. That was his line. He said, 'They killed Mr. Kennedy.' Chaplin went away so fast, I think, because he was fearful."

Jordan's private detective firm was hired by the Motion Picture Academy to guard Chaplin during his four day April visit to Los Angeles, his first trip to the United States in two decades.

Jordan said Chaplin had received death threats before he left Switzerland for New York on the first leg of the trip to Los Angeles. In Los Angeles there were at least a dozen more threats.

"I can't give you the exact number but there were at least a dozen. They were coming into the Music Center—site of the Oscar presentation—and they called his hotel."

All the threats were anonymous and most of them came by telephone. But they said they were going to kill Chaplin.

"With anonymous phone callers there isn't much you can do, so we had to have the security assume that someone would try."

"Sometimes they specified they were going to blow him up or shoot him. Sometimes they didn't specify how it would be done," Jordan said.

There were no attempts to harm Chaplin in Los Angeles, Jordan said. "The greeting by the crowds was nothing but warm. But someone might have come with different intentions and seen four or five guards around and changed his mind."

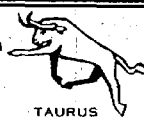

Chaplin was met at planeside at Los Angeles International Airport and whisked to the Beverly Hills Hotel, which Jordan's detectives had checked for security arrangements.

Jordan had collected advance information on two or three persons with reservations at the hotel with whom the hotel was unfamiliar.

Photographs were taken of the crowds which assembled to see Chaplin and negatives were rushed through processing to determine whether the same faces appeared at every stop.

Your Horoscope

Frances Drake

March 21 to April 20 (Aries) — A still favorable Mars aspect now gives you fresh basis for estimating potentials in considering long-range programs. Stress your innate enthusiasm, optimism.

April 21 to May 21 (Taurus) — Some past negligence may show its effect now. You can undo the damage if you use good judgment. Even slight improvements will eventually lead to gain.

May 22 to June 21 (Gemini) — Especially favored now: conferences, making plans for the future, pursuits which stimulate the intellect. Don't put too much faith in a new romance, however.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer) — There's much more to this day than may meet the casual eye. Search out the advantages for, even though hidden, they can be happily far-reaching.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo) — Line up all the "musts" and handle everything in order. Confusion comes from acting haphazardly instead of by day's governing factors. Emphasize accuracy.

August 24 to September 23 (Virgo) — Note Leo. Your advice similar under present aspects. In all matters, take care not to overdo or appraise without knowing all facts.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra) — Avoid letting "feelings" motivate actions and waste no time regretting past errors. Think, reason — and go forward, confidently!

October 24 to November 23 (Scorpio) — An auspicious day! Go after whatever is worthwhile — with all the vigor you can. By-pass trifles that interfere with essentials.

November 23 to December 21 (Sagittarius) — Large-scale dealing, trusts, building and agriculture can advance under astute management. But you will have to work hard and have unswerving faith in your goals.

December 22 to January 20 (Capricorn) — You will face improving conditions in some spots, aggravating complexities elsewhere. Knowing what to do and say at the appropriate moment will be your key to handling all situations.

January 21 to February 19 (Aquarius) — Don't depart abruptly from a well-planned routine, except where emergency so requires. Road may be bumpy in part, but rewards will be sweeter.

February 20 to March 20 (Pisces) — Impulsiveness MUST be avoided now. Also, temperamentalism and going to extremes. In routine matters, you should do well, especially if you maintain a flexible attitude.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with an engaging personality; are enterprising, gifted in leadership and business acumen. You are not as creative or artistic as most other Taureans, but you find fulfillment striving for goals of a more material nature. And you can achieve them! Your ideas are progressive and you are never happier than when producing.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message; the letters under the checked figures give you.

Troops disperse gangs

BELFAST (UPI)—British riot troops waded into a street battle between Roman Catholic and Protestant youths Sunday and separated the rival gangs with billy clubs. Bomb explosions and shooting incidents were reported throughout Northern Ireland.

Youths fought hand to hand battles and pelted each other with rocks and bottles along the New Lodge Road area, a traditional stronghold of the militant "Provisional Wing" of the outlawed Irish Republican Army (IRA). Windows were smashed and automobiles wrecked in the melee.

British troops rushed between them, clubbing both sides with batons and hustling the Protestant youths back to their own district, known as "Tiger Bay."

The incident was touched off after midnight when denim clad Protestant tarant gangs tried to invade the Catholic archa chanting "IRA out" and "jail for the rebels."

At Rathfriland, 30 miles south of Belfast, troops and police narrowly escaped injury when four bomb explosions wrecked a health center. The bombs were carefully timed to trap security forces as they arrived to investigate the first explosion, an army spokesman said.

Romania to help ease crisis

JERUSALEM (UPI)—Prime Minister Golda Meir returned from Romania Sunday and said the Communist Bucharest government is prepared to act as go-between but not mediator to bring about a Middle East settlement.

"What Romania is willing to do—and we welcome it—is to give us their impressions of what the other side, specifically Egypt, is prepared to do (for peace) and to tell the other side what we are prepared to do," she said.

In Cairo, the Middle East News Agency said Sunday Romania President Nicolae Ceausescu told Mrs. Meir her forces must be withdrawn from all occupied Arab lands to ensure peace in the area. The agency quoted sources at the Romanian embassy for its information.

Both Romania and Israel underscored the need for peaceful settlement of outstanding international disputes including the Middle East conflict in a joint communique summarizing Mrs. Meir's visit to the Warsaw Pact nation, the first trip by any Israeli premier to a Communist country.

Tough standards

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Contrary to an earlier UPI dispatch, the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is leaning toward tough regulations to prevent water pollution caused by discharge of human wastes from boats.

A UPI story Tuesday quoted EPA sources as saying the standards proposed a year ago had been substantially weakened. Higher ranking officials of the agency told UPI Sunday the report was erroneous.

New York's Voice of Broadway

NEW YORK — Alyce (Mrs. Ed) McMahon put their once happy Bronxville home on the block, now that their 27-year marriage has champagne-fizzled out. She'll move to Philly or Ft. Lauderdale ... Former Cleveland Mayor Carl Stokes took a stylish Essex House apartment for two months (he's due to appraise as a $2,500-a-week NBC-TV newscaster) ... The Paperback rights alone to Dan Jenkins' "Semi-Tough" novel went for $225,000 to the New American Library. Book of the Month contracts and the Playboy condensation are besides ... Now movie deals are cellophane in.

Jean Paul Getty's due to find another fortune, literary this time; he's checking his dairy covering every day of his life since 1901 ... The multi-billionaire's been emotionally crushed — his 8-year-old dog Rex died and Getty shut himself off from everyone ... David Niven studied the reviews of his delightfully naughty "The Moon's a Balloon" autobiography and was so surprised, already he's writing another book.

The black contingent in "Jesus Christ Superstar" staged a small revolution backstage. Charged someone with "discrimination." ... New York GOP boss Vincent Albano is facing a palace revolt. He backed Lindsay, who's rather switch than fight, and now that he's been snubbed by the Dems. too, the underlings want Albano out. They wouldn't have had the Lindsay years of public-toughing without Albano, but what's he done for them lately ... John Lennon and Yoko Ono are being deported for overstaying their visa. They'd have been deported long ago if boring people was a herring-raising offense ... New song on the airwaves plainly hasn't been heard by the program decisioners: "I Wanna Make Out Before We Break Up."

Next fall's network pro football telecasts are just about sold out already ... Bob Hope wasn't hired as usual by last year's Ohio Fair because of his palship with Ohio GOP bigwig plus his Agnew-Nixon politics. The Fair's boxoffice dropped. Politics-schmolitics, Bob's sought again this year — at a big raise ... As Sam Goldwyn once roared about a writer, "I'll never hire him again unless I need him!"

Ron Alexander's "Keep Off the Grass" comedy folded on the tryout trail ... Jack Cassidy (that's David Cassidy's dad, kids) disappeared from the cast of the imminent "Tough to Get Help" Bdwy. comedy ... We couldn't make the "Don't Bother Me, I Can't Cope" opening. Variety's Hobe Morison praised author-star

Micki Grant but, "otherwise 'Don't Bother' is a passable all-musical show of vehement, semi-intelligible black protest, defiance and exhortation. The energy of the performance is admirable, though somewhat monotonous until Miss Grant appears."

Every Tony Award winner showed up for the event. Not a George C. Scott poseur in the gang ... Nearly every opera troupe in the world warns its divas to stay off The Pill. Lowers their vocal registers. Skin care expert Georgette Klinger dithos the no-no. Says it's a skin-ruiner ... Mary Magdalen Von Losch is packin' 'em in in European concerts. Who? That's Marlene Dietrich, very sexy at either 67 or 70, take your almanac-choke.

Richard Harris switched to milk, doctor's orders, and gloated it's not a total loss: "He didn't say cut the girls."

Tavern on the Green in Central Park and the Promenade Cafe in Radio City opened their outdoor dining areas. Got this from a shivering press agent, dripping wet ... Mabel Mercer of the on-teen saloons (Blue Angel etc.) brings her soft sad songs to the St. Regis Room of that hotel. It's a charming, tiny boile, just right for Mabel. You've got to hug Mabel to hear her. It's fun.

Darryl Zanuck's out at the 20th-Fox top, so he's not been mentioned in all the "French Connection" gloating. But DFZ was 20th's boss when it was bought. Producer Phil D'Antoni knows it ... Backstage strangers did a tak-tak "take" when they saw two painted clowns holding hands and snuggling before they pranced into the Madison Square Garden Ringling Bros. performance. They were Sandra Hayes and Ronald Severini, and even the lunatic camouflage couldn't cloak their being sooo in lovevvvv.

When you're hot you're sizzling: the Flip Wilson Show won six Emmy nominations last year; six, this ... Saks, Tenth Ave. sells a men's shirt striped in stock market ticker tape ... And "The Stock Market" is a Mamaroneck, N.Y., butcher shop ... Neiman-Marcus, the chic Dallas department store, is in the movie business. "Ginger in the Morning" is the first offering ... Not Ginger Rogers in the morning; our Ginger's now the fashion maven at J. C. Penney; just like Morton Downey for Coke, Joan Crawford for Pepsi, Hildegard for Mt. Valley Water and Woody Allen for lunacy ... Duncan's, the new sports hangout, hires all the basketball skyscrapers. Its greeter is jockey-high.

Talk to dad

FIRST POT: (Q.) Last week I went to my first big party. One of the guys had some marijuana. He passed it around. I didn't want to seem like a square so I took some. The party was great. All the kids went home feeling pretty good.

But I have a guilty conscience now because I haven't told my parents yet. I would have right away, but my father is a minister and is totally against any sort of drugs. What should I do?

Uneasy in Upper New York (A.) You want to talk to your father about what happened. He is probably, thanks to training and experience, much better qualified than most parents to help you at this critical time.

Ask him to be just as frank with you as he would be with any teen-ager who walked into his office with a story like yours.

I believe he will give you the same advice I would give you: Find new friends who can have a good time without artificial stimulation.

BARE CHEST: (Q.) I am 18 and for the life of me I can't find a single dark hair on my chest. This really bugs me because all my friends have at least a few and some have a whole chest full.

My brother, who is two years younger than I, already has a few — enough to see. My father is very hairy chested.

He says to be patient. I've run out of patience. Is there a doctor or a medicine that can make hair grow on my chest?

Beating My Breast in Connecticut

(A.) Be calm. If you are going to get a hairy chest you will get it. If you aren't you won't. No doctor or medicine can put hair there. Only nature can.

The chances that nature will come through for you seem to be good because of your father's example. But if nature fails you, concentrate on your other good points.

THANKS from

POCONO INTERNATIONAL RACEWAY

SPENCER CRAMER
President

(Seated left to right) John C. Pemberton, Executive Vice President; Dr. Joseph Mattioli, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, Pocono International Raceway; Walter D. McKim, Senior Commercial Officer (standing); Wesley H. Newhouse, Vice President and Cameron S. Clark, Senior Vice President of First Pennsylvania Bank of Philadelphia.

CARL B. LEHR
Treasurer

THANKS to the First Pennsylvania Bank of Philadelphia for its confidence in the Raceway and in the Pocono Mountain area of Northeastern Pennsylvania. The First Pennsylvania Bank and its 80 branches so ably led by its Chairman, John Bunting, and James Bodine, President, has arranged a $5,000,000 loan for Pocono International Raceway. Representing the First Pennsylvania company was Mr. Walter McKim, Senior Commercial Officer.

THANKS to these men for their financial support. Without their help the Raceway would not have survived to this date: Carl Lehr, Spencer Cramer, Arthur C. Henning, Lester G. Abeloff, Paul R. Edinger, Karl Hope, Dr. Frank Dracos, Tom Rue, Dr. Henry Segatti, Joseph Farda, Vincent and Ralph Vecchio, Frank Klingner, Richard Price, W. Jack Kalins, Carl Fiers, William S. Simpson, Sid Krawitz, Al Reiner, Omar Ash, Harold O'Brien, Morris Wilkins, Lee Butz, A. W. Loos, William Boekel Co., R. J. Trane, Logan Steele, Joseph Harris, Peter Corazzi and Eldore Sebastianelli.

THANKS to these civic minded individuals who felt that the Raceway would be a very important adjunct to the Pocono Mountains resort area and gave their support when doing so was not the most popular thing to do: Clifford Cramer and John Baymor of the Northeastern National Bank, Tom Kiley, Charles Bensinger and Casey Drake of the First National Bank of Eastern Pennsylvania, George Darlington of Monroe Security Bank, Charles Paolillo and Bob Uguccioni of the Pocono Mountains Vacation Bureau and its entire membership, and all of the surrounding communities who have shown interest in the Raceway.

THANKS to the following list of individuals and companies for their unusual patience in waiting for the monies due them. Because of their help the Poconos will continue to have a major Raceway. Many of these people are small businessmen and their help and support was a real sacrifice. We thank you for bearing with us.

Finally, I should like to thank the very small and dedicated staff that has worked day after day under severe pressure, not knowing what the future would hold for them, especially Bill Marvel and Jack Kalins ably assisted by Clair Witt, Anne Reed, Linda Dotter, June Dougherty, Paulette Fretz, Mary Quinn, Mae Keiper, Bernice Coleman, George Ewald, Ralph Witt, Mike and Tom Dunlap and Bob Clidinst.

The history of this Raceway has been a long and hectic one. I only hope that the future success of the Raceway will somehow compensate all these fine people for their very loyal support. Bringing the Raceway to this point has been a very long and difficult journey. I also hope that the future success of this auto racing facility will be of major importance to Northeastern Pennsylvania and especially to those of us in the Pocono Mountains.

Sincerely Yours
